UNTAMED Who Am I?

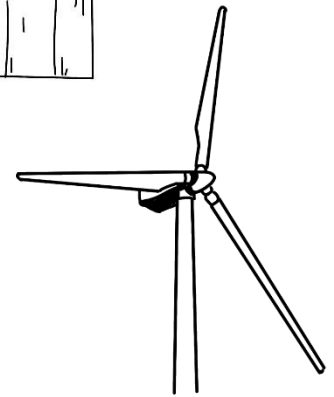

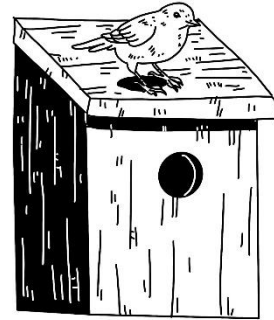

Read each description, and draw a line to the picture that answers each question.

I have a dark head, warm orange colored belly and a round body. I am often seen in your backyards eating earthworms. Who am I?

I can be dangerous to songbirds if kept outside. I could also be your snuggly best friend inside. Who am I?

I am small with a round belly, have a rust colored throat, bright blue wings. I love to use nest boxes. Who am I?

I can provide power to many people but can hurt flying animals. Who am I?

Bonus:

Can you name three different songbirds that you see in your backyard?
